New Business

- A. Pee Wee-Brent Pope asked to open back up a discussion on naming Field 2 after Brent Taylor. Due to time restraints, Bill Sutton asked to table the topic and discussion until next park board meeting.
- B. RIF- Will Lacey met with Chuck Lehman with V3 to kick off the approved RIF. Will asked if anyone on the board be available to also attend these meetings, Mike Corbitt agreed.
- C. Lyons Incident-Will Lacey stated that there was an incident a couple of weeks ago at a Lyons game where a gun was stolen out of the players locker room. This put into motion a meeting with the Lyons and staff to address our concerns and how to proceed. The Lyons have made corrective actions which included metal detectors and making sure they have a uniformed officer present at ever game.
- D. Park Bond Update- Will Lacey stated the due to a lack of Town Council members being present at the last council meeting, the Bond just went through a first reading and hoping we will be able to get in pass tonight.

- E. Parking and Trail Project- Will Lacey stated we added 47 additional parking spots in Ellis Park along with curb stops throughout the park. Will Lacey stated that we were a couple of curbs short and will need to get about 22 more in the upcoming weeks.
- F. Blanton House- Will Lacey stated that some minor changes had to be done to the drawings and should be able to start are that in the next several of weeks. Will Lacey noted that he is going to talk to the neighbors and let them know about the plans and design. Will Lacey wants to continue to be good neighbors and communicate the updates that will be made.
- G. Winterland-Will Lacey stated that we are open with the additions of carriage rides that are nearly booked up.

Old Business

- A. Recreation Update- Today is the first day for Read, Write & Roll, Euchre is wrapping up, Painting, Christmas Porch Pot Painting.
- B. Danville Athletic Club-Looking to update some of the door locks.
- C. Interurban Trail Update: Working on an available grant and should know results soon.

Financials

A. YTD Financial Report-Will Lacey stated that the only major purchase was for two new pool controllers for the pool. A motion to approve financials as presented by Will Lacey by Mike Corbitt, 2nd by David Glover. Motion passed 5-0.

Public Comment:

Brent Pope & Taylor family asked to have field 2 named during New Business A.
