

1. President of the Council calls for nominations for President of the Council.
2. Any member may nominate someone for this position. All nominations for President are taken at this time. A nomination does not need a second.
3. When the nominations have ended, the President repeats the nominations and then continues to the vote.
4. If there is more than one nominee for a given office, the candidates are voted on in the order in which they were nominated.
5. As soon as one of the nominees received a majority vote, the President declares him/her elected for that office and no votes are taken on the remaining nominees for that office.
6. An election to an office becomes final immediately if the candidate is present and does not decline. An officer-elect takes possession of the office immediately upon his/her election becomes final unless the council rules or ordinances say specify a later time (I did not see anything specific to this in the Town's ordinances).

The other officers are elected in the same way.
